• SPEAKER BIO •

Mrs. Sonya Anderson

Mrs. Anderson is currently the Family Ministries Coordinator at Constance Free Church in Andover. Many of you know her very well since all of her children attended here, and her kids have been phenomenal leaders in our school over the past decade and a half! Also, for years she led impactful LCA student events such as En Gedi (a monthly time of worship, teaching, and games for high school students) and Pray Legacy (a weekly hour long prayer time for all students before school).

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK!

Mrs. Anderson spoke four times, Monday through Thursday last week, and focused on the character quality of respect. Her first message centered on Jesus having all authority and power and how we need to respect Him because He's in charge of everything. On the second day, she talked about each person, no matter how different or unique, is created in God's image and deserves our respect. Mrs. Anderson tied in how orphans (like her adopted sons from Columbia) and people with special needs are also created in God's image and deserve our utmost respect. The third day focused on honoring and respecting our parents and the result is being protected by God Himself, just as a strong castle wall is a source of protection for those inside. On the final day, Mrs. Anderson illustrated how each person in authority in our lives deserves respect, such as teachers, doctors, police officers, coaches, referees, and many others.
