A WEEKLY UPDATE ON LEGACY CHRISTIAN ACADEMY CHAPEL GATHERINGS

• SPEAKER BIO •

Mrs. Winkes and the LCA Drama Team

Every time around this part of the year, there is a buzz in the entire community surrounding Legacy's spring musical. Mrs. Winkes and her team do an exceptional job not only performing, but learning how to glorify God and love Him wholeheartedly through the gifts He's given them.

• THIS WEEK •

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is upon me, for the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to comfort the brokenhearted and to proclaim that captives will be released and prisoners will be freed—

Isaiah 61:1-2 (NLT)

Mrs. Winkes introduced this unique chapel experience with a verse from Isaiah 61 about the purpose Victor Hugo (the writer of Les Misérables) intended for this play: to encourage and challenge Christians how to love. Just as Christ loved us and laid down His life for us, so now we are called to lay down our lives for one another, even if they do not love us in return. This performance challenges us to pursue justice for the poor and open our hearts to the less fortunate. The cast and crew performed a scene from the prologue followed by a scene from the "A-B-C Café." It was remarkable to see the scope, size, and excellence with which these students are able to glorify Christ not only with their gifts and talents, but also with their character. Mrs. Winkes concluded chapel by sharing a verse from Romans 6:22 and about the importance of finding eternal life in God.

• KIDS QUOTES •

Evan B. (4th) – I really liked the slave camp scene where they were working really hard.

Derrick A. (4th) – I really liked the scene in the slave camp because it was so intense!

Evelyn D. (4th) – I liked how each person in the cast got into their character and really showed what they were feeling!
