PROVERBS 25:28

A PERSON WITHOUT SELF-CONTROL IS LIKE A CITY WITH BROKEN-DOWN WALLS.

• THIS WEEK •

“But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.”

—Galatians 5:22-23

The school year’s first chapel was kicked off in a fun, memorable, comedic, and Biblical way with Mrs. Gerber leading the students in some energetic praise and worship and Mr. Nydam teaching the students an overview of the fruits of the Spirit. Our beloved Principal blindfolded a few of the students and asked them to identify the type of fruit they were tasting. He used that game as an exciting way to focus his message on being able to Biblically and practically recognize and live out the fruits of the Spirit in our lives. Mr. Nydam concluded his fruity message with having some student volunteers come up to the front and hold up a sign of the particular fruit of the Spirit they were able to recall when asked.

• KIDS QUOTES •

- Ivy D. (K) – My favorite part about chapel was that my dad was able to come with me!
- Mason L. (K) – I really liked the fruit blindfold contest that Mr. Nydam did. It was really funny when they ate the hot dog!
- Alyssa K. (K) – My favorite part was when [the student volunteers] ate the hot dog because it wasn’t a fruit!
