• THIS WEEK •

*"A friend loves at all times.
They are there to help when trouble comes."*

—Proverbs 17:17 (NIRV)

Josiah began this week's message on friendship with a small activity to illustrate how we can demonstrate our love for one another: he had students give each other some encouragement with some high fives. Then Josiah shared about his relationship with his best friend, his wife, and about how they love being together, talking together, sharing life together, and playing games together. Also, he shared about the "Golden Rule" and how friends will treat each other with respect and love. Furthermore, he shared that friends will forgive one another and say "I'm sorry." Just as Jesus forgave us, so now we too need to forgive others. At the end of his message, he asked if any students would want to ask Jesus to forgive them of their sin, receive Him into their lives, and live for Him each day. There were more than a few students who raised their hands! Ask your child if they were one of those who responded and talk to them about what it means to follow Jesus Christ every day.

• KIDS QUOTES •

- Jude K. (K) – I want to be a good friend!
- Elijah Z. (K) – When someone falls down I can help them up and be a good friend.
- Conner A. (K) – You always want to be a good friend. It's just like bees. If you are nice to them they are nice to you. But if you are mean, they'll sting you.
