Training the body has some value. But being godly has value in every way. It promises help for the life you are now living and the life to come.

1 Timothy 4:8, NIV

• THIS WEEK •

Mr. Nydam wrapped up this month's theme of commitment talking about faith and trust in God's commitment to us. He explained how faith is knowing that God will follow through with His commitments. He used the example of a trust fall. He chose four volunteers. The first three volunteers weren't quite sure that Mr. Nydam was going to commit, make a plan to catch them, and then actually put it into practice. However, when Mr. Nydam called his daughter, Brielle, to do the trust fall, she did it without hesitation and with complete trust because she knew and trusted her dad. Mr. Nydam used this to illustrate how a relationship with God is so important for our own faith and trust in Him. Lastly, Mr. Nydam explained how he made a plan to grow his beard, how he committed to not shave it off, and how he actually put it into practice! As an incentive for the class who reads the most minutes in February, they will be able to decide how Mr. Nydam shaves his beard, and then Mr. Nydam will come to school with his beard shaven in that manner for one day! Let's continue to encourage our students to commit to reading this month, especially God's Word!
