Do to others as you would have them do to you.

• THIS WEEK •

Nate started the month talking about the foundation for our kindness. He directed students to Titus 3:4-7, where Paul talked about God’s amazing kindness towards us. God poured out His kindness when He sent Jesus to rescue us from the consequences of our sin. We can have life forever because of God’s kindness and love. Nate furthered this theme by illustrating how there are consequences to the bad things we do. Sin has consequences. We deserve death, but God in His kindness, took our place, died in our place, forgave us of our sin so that we can have a relationship with Him! His kindness isn’t earned. It is a gift. Now we can freely give and show kindness as He has. God gives us strength to show kindness because He showed us kindness first. When we show kindness, it’s like turning on a flashlight in a dark room. We are called to be kind because He is kind. The bottom line Nate mentioned is this: Be kind to others because God is kind to you. We pray that as kids learn about God’s kindness through Jesus, they will see how they can reflect God’s kindness to the people in their life.
