“Show proper respect to everyone!”

— 1 Peter 2:17a

To introduce August's theme of respect, Mrs. Gerber and Mr. Rudzitis taught students the importance of respect using an analogy of following a band leader. If the drummer stops listening to the band director, the whole band will get off track. So, we as followers of Jesus, must respect Him and not get off track.

Mr. Stontz concluded August's theme of respect by encouraging students to stay underneath the protection of honoring and respecting God, their parents, their teachers, and everyone else too! ☺ He used an analogy of an umbrella. Just as an umbrella protects us from the rain and the hot rays of the sun, so respecting God, our parents, teachers, and everyone will safeguard our lives from the problems that come with disobeying and disrespecting them.

• KIDS QUOTES •

- Kaden L. (3rd) – I really like worshiping God in chapel!
- Gracelyn K. (3rd) – I want to be protected by staying under the umbrella of respect!
- Avery A. (3rd) – I am thankful we can worship and learn about God at our school because many kids don't have this at their school.
