*"A friend loves at all times.
They are there to help when trouble comes."*

—Proverbs 17:17 (NIV)

Mr. Nydam brought a message about friendship that focused on the importance of encouragement. To do this, he had the students review the Bible verse for the month, Proverbs 17:17. To emphasize the importance of encouraging our friends when they need help, Mr. Nydam invited some parents to volunteer to be blindfolded then drink/eat a mixture of two different ingredients that would be determined by the "Wheel of Mystery." Then the volunteer would guess the two ingredients. The ingredients varied from mustard, Coke, chocolate syrup, BBQ sauce, pineapple juice, and others! The elementary students were the encouragers, cheering the parents on as they attempted to eat the less than pleasant concoction of ingredients. At the end, all the students were loudly and proudly encouraging Mr. Nydam to eat his mixture of chocolate syrup and mustard!
